TRAINING CAMP SET TO BEGIN IN GREEN BAY

A day circled on the calendar of every sports fan – the official beginning of the NFL season – will arrive this Thursday when the Green Bay Packers kick off the 2018 campaign at Ray Nitschke Field.

- ▶ A tradition first started under Curly Lambeau in 1946, training camp in Green Bay remains one of the most intimate settings in all of professional sports. 2018 marks the 10th summer at Nitschke Field, just a short bike ride away from the team facility.
- ▶ Nitschke Field has seating for 1,500 fans with unobstructed views.
- ▶ Just as it does at Lambeau Field, new traditions blend with historic ones at Packers training camp, as players continue to ride children's bicycles to practice, a tradition first started under the legendary Vince Lombardi. Players continue to stay in the dorms at St. Norbert College, the NFL's longest training-camp relationship between a team and school.
- ▶ As part of the 100 Seasons celebration, the beginning of this year's training camp includes the Packers Experience, a free, four-day festival with activities and entertainment for fans of all ages.
- ▶ According to the Greater Green Bay Convention and Visitors Bureau and a 2010 study by AECOM, training camp, along with Packers Family Night, will attract nearly 90,000 visitors from across the nation and as many as 20 foreign countries. With an economic impact estimated at $9 million, training camp is a financial boost to many area businesses.
- ▶ Media and fans can visit www.packers.com for the most up-to-date information regarding the practice schedule, events, dining and accommodation options, activities and more throughout training camp.

2018 TRAINING CAMP

OFFSEASON CHANGES

The Green Bay Packers saw some changes to the front office, the coaching staff and to the roster this offseason.

- ▶ After Ted Thompson made the transition to senior advisor to football operations, Brian Gutekunst was named general manager and Russ Ball was promoted to executive vice president/director of football operations.
- ▶ Head Coach Mike McCarthy made numerous changes to his coaching staff, including bringing back Joe Philbin as offensive coordinator and adding Mike Pettine as defensive coordinator. From 2007-11, Philbin was Green Bay's offensive coordinator, directing a unit that ranked No. 3 in the NFL over that span in points per game (28.3), touchdowns (267), passing touchdowns (170) and total net yards per game (372.8). In his five years as a defensive coordinator, (New York Jets, 2009-12; Buffalo Bills, 2013), Pettine led his units to a top-10 finish in total yards allowed and passing yards allowed in all five seasons.
- ▶ Other additions to the coaching staff were Jim Hostler as offense – pass game coordinator, Patrick Graham as defense – run game coordinator/inside linebackers, Frank Cignetti Jr. as quarterbacks coach, Ryan Downard as defensive quality control coach and Maurice Drayton as assistant special teams coach.
- ▶ McCarthy also promoted some coaches who were already on the staff, naming James Campen offense – run game coordinator/offensive line, Joe Whitt Jr. defense – pass game coordinator, Jerry Montgomery defensive line coach, David Raih wide receivers coach and Jason Simmons secondary coach.
- ▶ Green Bay added players as well this offseason including former Pro Bowlers TE Jimmy Graham, TE Marcedes Lewis, DL Muhammad Wilkerson and CB Tramon Williams.
- ▶ Graham has been selected to the Pro Bowl five times in his career (2011, 2013-14, 2016-17) and was named first-team All-Pro by The Associated Press in 2013. He is the only tight end in NFL history to have two seasons with 1,200-plus receiving yards and 10-plus receiving TDs (2011, 2013).
- ▶ Lewis, originally a first-round pick (No. 28 overall) by Jacksonville in 2006 out of UCLA, played in 170 games (No. 3 in franchise history) with 156 starts (No. 2 in franchise history) in 12 seasons with the Jaguars.
- ▶ Wilkerson, originally selected by the New York Jets in the first round (No. 30 overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft out of Temple, played in 105 regular-season games with 101 starts in seven seasons with the Jets. He registered 10-plus sacks twice in his career, 10½ in 2013 and 12 in 2015.
- ▶ Williams returns to the Packers after spending the last three seasons with the Cleveland Browns (2015-16) and Arizona Cardinals (2017). He is tied for No. 5 among active NFL players with 32 career interceptions.

MEET THE DRAFT PICKS

Training-camp storylines always hover around new players and just how they figure into the depth chart. The Packers added to an already talented roster with a 11-man draft class.

- ▶ CB Jaire Alexander was selected by the Packers with the 18th overall selection in the first round, a selection acquired from Seattle along with a seventh-round choice (No. 248 overall) in exchange for Green Bay's first-round pick (No. 27 overall, originally obtained from New Orleans), a third-round choice (No. 76 overall) and a sixth-round pick (No. 186 overall). Alexander earned second-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference recognition as a sophomore in 2016 after posting a team-high five interceptions (tied for No. 11 in the country) along with a career-best 39 tackles (31 solo) and 14 passes defended.

- ▶ The Packers selected CB Josh Jackson out of Iowa in the second round. He was named a permanent team captain on defense in 2017 and was a consensus first-team All-American as well as first-team All-Big Ten by the league's coaches and media after setting career highs in games started (13), tackles (48), solo tackles (34), passes defended (26, No. 1 in the nation), interception return yards (168, No. 2 in the nation) and forced fumbles (one). Jackson's career-best eight interceptions led the nation and tied the single-season school record.
- ▶ LB Oren Burks became the seventh player to be drafted out of Vanderbilt in team history when the Packers used a selection obtained from Carolina (third round, No. 88 overall) in exchange for a fourth-round pick (No. 101) and a fifth-round pick (No. 147). He was named to the Butkus Award watch list in 2017 and went on to post career highs in tackles (82), solo tackles (45) and tackles for a loss (seven) in his first season at inside linebacker.
- ▶ In the fourth round (No. 133 overall), the Packers selected WR J'Mon Moore, making him the highest-drafted wide receiver out of Missouri since Jeremy Maclin in 2009 (Philadelphia Eagles, No. 19 overall). Moore was named second-team All-Southeastern Conference in 2016 (The Associated Press) and 2017 (AP and coaches).
- ▶ With the first of three picks in the fifth round (No. 138 overall), Green Bay selected G Cole Madison, the highest-drafted lineman out of Washington State since T Scott Sanderson was selected in the third round by the Tennessee Oilers in 1997. Madison was a three-time All-Pacific-12 selection, earning second-team honors as a senior in 2017 and honorable mention as a junior and as a sophomore.
- ▶ The Packers drafted P JK Scott out of Alabama with their second selection (No. 172 overall) in the fifth round, a compensatory pick awarded to the team. He was selected to an All-American team in three of his four seasons, earning first-team honors in 2014 and second-team honors in '16 and '17.
- ▶ With the third of the fifth-round picks, which was also a compensatory selection, Green Bay drafted WR Marquez Valdes-Scantling out of the University of South Florida. In two seasons at USF, he scored five TDs of 50-plus yards (catches of 95 and 64 yards and 75-yard run in 2017, catches of 77 and 51 yards in 2016).
- ▶ Green Bay drafted WR Equanimeous St. Brown with a compensatory pick in the sixth round (No. 207 overall), making him the second Notre Dame wide receiver to ever be drafted by the Packers (Derrick Mayes, second round, 1996). He was named Notre Dame's Offensive Player of the Year as a sophomore in 2016 after leading the Irish with 58 receptions for 961 yards (16.5 avg.) and nine TDs.
- ▶ With the first of three seventh-round selections, the Packers took DL James Looney out of the University of California. He earned honorable mention All-Pacific-12 recognition in both of his final two seasons and was on the watch list for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy as a senior in 2017.
- ▶ With the No. 239 overall selection, Green Bay drafted LS Hunter Bradley out of Mississippi State, marking the fourth consecutive draft where a long snapper was selected (Colin Holba, sixth round, Pittsburgh, 2017 / Jimmy Landes, sixth round, Detroit, 2016 / Joe Cardona, fifth round, New England, 2015).
- ▶ With its final selection of the 2018 NFL Draft, a pick obtained from Seattle along with a first-round pick (No. 18 overall) in exchange for Green Bay's first-round pick (No. 27, from New Orleans), a third-round pick (No. 76) and a sixth-round pick (No. 186), Green Bay chose LB Kendall Donnerson. He became the first player to be drafted out of Southeast Missouri since C Eugene Amano in 2004 (Tennessee, seventh round), and is the only player to be drafted by the Packers from the school.

2018 TRAINING CAMP

ST. NORBERT AND THE PACKERS

Continuing a tradition started under Packers coach Scooter McLean in 1958, the Green Bay Packers will call St. Norbert College home for a 61st consecutive training camp this summer. The relationship between the private college in De Pere, Wis., and the Packers marks the longest continual use of any training-camp facility by an NFL team.

- ▶ Players will take up residence in Victor McCormick Hall, a 60-room coed dormitory used to house 225 students during the academic year.
- ▶ St. Norbert, founded in 1898 by Abbot Bernard Pennings, borders the Fox River and enrolls around 2,000 students.
- ▶ The Packers use their own practice and team-meeting facilities at Lambeau Field during training camp, with the college serving as housing headquarters.
- ▶ Players return to St. Norbert via cars and vans every evening.
- ▶ The 6.62-mile commute is estimated at 11 minutes each way.
- ▶ A look at the longest active training-camp tenures in the NFL:

Team	Training Camp	Years
Green Bay	St. Norbert College	61
Pittsburgh	St. Vincent College	53

A LOOK AT THE SCHEDULE

The Green Bay Packers' 98th NFL regular-season schedule – highlighted by five prime-time contests (subject to flexible scheduling) – was released April 19 by the National Football League.

- ▶ For the second consecutive season, the Packers open the season at home and will play three of their first four games at Lambeau Field.
- ▶ In Week 1, Green Bay will host Chicago on Sunday night, marking the 13th consecutive regular season that the Packers and Bears have squared off in primetime.
- ▶ It is the first time Green Bay has opened the season at home against the Bears since playing them on Sunday night in Week 1 of the 2009 season, a 21-15 win for the Packers.
- ▶ For the first time since 2012, the Packers play two home games to open the season, hosting Minnesota in Week 2. It marks just the third time (2003, 2008) since the NFC North was formed in 2002 that Green Bay has played division opponents in both of the first two games.
- ▶ The Packers' first road contest is at the Redskins, marking Green Bay's first September visit to Washington.
- ▶ The Packers return home for two of three games before the bye, first taking on the Buffalo Bills in Week 4 and then traveling to Detroit to play the Lions.
- ▶ In Week 6, Green Bay hosts the San Francisco 49ers on Monday Night Football, marking the fourth time the two teams have met on MNF and the first since 1999. It is the fifth time in the last six seasons the Packers have played at Lambeau Field on MNF.
- ▶ After the second Week 7 bye for Green Bay in the last four seasons (2015), the Packers will play four of five games on the road.
- ▶ Green Bay makes its first trip to the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum since 1978 to play the Rams.
- ▶ In Week 9, the Packers travel to the other side of the country to play the Patriots on Sunday night.
- ▶ It is the second consecutive time the Packers and Patriots will face off on a Sunday night in New England (2010).

- ▶ Green Bay returns home to take on the Miami Dolphins before a quick turnaround to play the Seahawks, marking the Packers' second Thursday night game at Seattle (Week 1 in 2014). Including the postseason, it will be the seventh time Green Bay and Seattle have played since 2012.
- ▶ November finishes with a trip to play the Vikings on Sunday night, marking the sixth straight season that the teams have met in a prime-time game.
- ▶ Green Bay opens the final month of the regular season against Arizona, only the second time the Cardinals have played at Lambeau Field in December (Dec. 21, 1969).
- ▶ The Packers will play back-to-back home games for only the second time in 2018 when they host the Atlanta Falcons in Week 14. It will be the fourth matchup (including postseason) between Green Bay and Atlanta in the last three seasons.
- ▶ The Packers end the season with two road games in the final three weeks for the seventh straight year.
- ▶ In Week 15, Green Bay will face the Bears in Chicago, a place it has won in the regular season each of the last seven years. The Packers have scored 30-plus points at Chicago in four of the last five matchups (33, 38, 31, 30, 23).
- ▶ The Packers' road slate will finish up with a game at the New York Jets, the third December game at the Jets in team history (1981, 2002). Three of the last four games at New York have been decided by single digits, including one game that went to overtime.
- ▶ Green Bay will close out the regular season against the Lions for the third straight year and the fourth time in the last five seasons. Green Bay has an 18-6 overall mark (.750) and a 10-2 home record (.833) against Detroit under Head Coach Mike McCarthy.

IN THE PRESEASON

The Packers' preseason schedule opens at Lambeau Field and features all four games against AFC teams.

- For the second consecutive season, the Packers are scheduled to open the preseason at home, hosting the Tennessee Titans. It is the Titans' first preseason trip to Green Bay since playing in the finale in 2008. The Packers and Titans had previously opened the preseason against each other in 2014 in Tennessee.
- Green Bay will stay at home the next week to play the Pittsburgh Steelers. It will mark the first preseason contest between the two at Lambeau Field since 1996. Including the regular season, it will be the fourth meeting between the two teams since 2013.
- The Packers finish the preseason with two road games for the second time in three years (2016), first traveling to California to play the Oakland Raiders. It is the third preseason matchup between the two in the past five years (2014, 2016) but the first time Green Bay has played at Oakland in the preseason since 2001.
- The Packers will close out the preseason at Kansas City. It is the first preseason matchup with the Chiefs since 2016, which was the end of a seven-year run where the two teams met in the preseason finale six times. Green Bay will not play any of their preseason opponents during the regular season.

BREAKING DOWN THE ROSTER

The Packers enter training camp with a 89-man roster that is composed of 44 offensive players, 41 defensive players and four specialists.

- Of the 90 players on Green Bay's roster, 44 of them (48.9 percent) were draft picks of the Packers. Green Bay has nine players that were drafted in the first round, including seven that were selected by the Packers.
- Green Bay has 40 players on the roster that began their careers as undrafted free agents.
- Over 50 percent of the players (50 of 89, 56.2 percent) on Green Bay's roster entered the league as a sixth-round or seventh-round pick or as an undrafted player.
- Of the 89 players on the roster, 77 of them (86.5 percent) are 28 years old or younger (as of July 26) and 49 players (55.1 percent) are 24 years old or younger.

TRAINING CAMP MEDIA INFORMATION & POLICIES

TRAINING-CAMP PRACTICE ACCESS

- ▶ Practices are open in their entirety to credentialed media. However, photography (video and still) will be limited to certain periods during training camp.

- ▶ The team reserves the right to limit photography to certain periods for competitive reasons.
- ▶ During practice periods in which B-roll and still photography are NOT permitted, the media may not utilize camera phones either. The communications staff will alert the media of the permissible “shooting” periods before and during each practice.
- ▶ Video of practice, press conferences or locker-room interviews by an individual or media outlet may not be posted at any time on social-media sites or live-broadcasting applications (this includes applications such as Facebook, Twitter, Vine, Instagram, Snapchat, Ustream, Periscope and Meerkat, etc).
- ▶ No still photography is permitted in the locker room at any time. Signs, notes and other personal items or information posted in and around the locker room at player lockers are not to be photographed or captured on video.
- ▶ Filming or relaying information on closed-circuit televisions throughout the building, including the locker room, is strictly prohibited.
- ▶ Shots that require members of the media to be in a kneeling position with cameras on the ground are not permitted for safety reasons.
- ▶ No tripods are allowed during practice.

BLOGGING/TWITTER POLICY

- ▶ During training camp, “Twitter/blogging” is allowed during practices, but the Packers would ask that members of the media utilizing the technology adhere to a few simple guidelines. Please note that this policy is for training-camp practices only and does change during the regular season.
- ▶ NO entries about specific schemes, personnel groupings or anything that might be related in any way to game planning. If you have ANY questions about this, please ask a member of the Packers’ communications staff before posting.
- ▶ NO entries regarding “football communications,” including specific exchanges between coaches and players that might be overheard. Acknowledgement that the conversation occurred is acceptable, but we ask that the details of the conversation be withheld.
- ▶ NO detailed speculation as to the potential nature or severity of an injury until Coach McCarthy has addressed it following practice. Once again, acknowledging that an injury occurred and providing general details (i.e., ‘Right leg...’ or ‘Left wrist...’) is permitted, but anything beyond that would be purely speculative and possibly inaccurate.
- ▶ The team would like to continue to keep training-camp practices open to those wishing to utilize blogs and/or Twitter, but such a policy is contingent upon media adhering to the guidelines above. If there are ANY questions regarding what is or is not acceptable, please contact a member of the Packers’ communications department.

ONLINE-CONTENT POLICY

- ▶ According to the 2018 NFL non-game online content policy, accredited organizations may distribute online non-game audio and video content, including interviews, press conferences and team practices at NFL venues, acquired as a result of credentialed access (“Game Information”) to games or club/league facilities provided that such distribution: is 90 seconds maximum per day (180 seconds in two-team markets – 90 seconds per team); may not be “archived” (i.e., made available for on-demand public access) for more than 24 hours; appears in an editorial context only (no sponsorship, merchandising or advertising integrated with or around the content); is not posted live; and is accompanied by links back to NFL.com and to the club website.
- ▶ The 90-second limit does not include video/audio material that is composed entirely of a credentialed media employee providing commentary or analysis (“talking head” reporting), including pregame or postgame stand-up material shot on the field or other facility location.
- ▶ While a game is in progress, any forms of accounts of the game must be sufficiently time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., score updates with detail given only in quarterly game updates, fewer than 10 photographs during the game) so that the accredited organization’s game coverage cannot be used as a substitute for, or otherwise approximate, authorized play-by-play accounts.
- ▶ The Packers have their own social-media and online-content policies for practice reporting, which will be communicated by the communications staff for both training camp and the regular season. Members of the media are encouraged to contact the communications staff with any questions.

INJURY-FOOTAGE POLICY

- ▶ Again this season, the Packers respectfully ask all photographers (video and still) to follow guidelines related to shooting injured players.
- ▶ Photographers are asked to avoid filming, photographing, printing and/or airing any shots of any injury situation, while the injury occurs, while trainers attend to/treat the injured player, and while the player is leaving the field, either on his own or with aid. This includes minor injuries.
- ▶ The team will allow shots of players after they’ve been treated. For instance, cameras are allowed to shoot a player on the sideline with ice on his knee, after trainers have left.
- ▶ However, cameras are not allowed to film a player on crutches, either on the field or in the locker room.
- ▶ If outlets choose not to respect this policy — or any other policy — the team will have no choice but to consider limiting access to the field and/or locker room.

TRAINING CAMP MEDIA INFORMATION & POLICIES

PRIVATE TEAM COMMUNICATION

- ▶ The Packers ask all media, print and electronic, to refrain from reporting or recording any team communication meant solely for the team.
- ▶ This includes the post-practice team huddle, in which McCarthy addresses his players. It also includes mid-practice and/or post-practice communication between any coach and his players, especially conversations of a reprimanding, negative nature.
- ▶ In general, reporting that the conversation took place is acceptable, just not the details of those conversations. Details are not to be relayed to the public either directly (through firsthand hearing), or indirectly (through interviews, even if the subject answers the question).
- ▶ If media has any question as to whether communication should be kept private, please contact the communications department before writing or airing such conversations.

PRACTICE CREDENTIAL INFORMATION

- ▶ Admittance will not be granted without a credential. No guests will be permitted to use media credentials, which are subject to revocation if used in that manner.
- ▶ All preseason practice sessions will be open to members of the media who cover the team on a regular basis, unless otherwise stipulated. All other media (news departments, etc.) must secure a practice-field pass from the communications department and sign the necessary waiver before attending practice. No exceptions can be made.
- ▶ All media members, including visiting media, are asked to contact the Packers' communications department to obtain training-camp credentials. Practice-field (season-long photo ID and daily) credentials, required for all practice sessions, are not transferable and will be closely monitored. A liability waiver must be signed before gaining access to Packers' practices.
- ▶ Members of the media are asked to email their requests for practice-field credentials to the communications department's Sarah Quick (email: quicks@packers.com) at least 24 hours in advance of the day (or days) on which they wish to cover practice.

CELL PHONES

- ▶ The team does not tolerate cell phone distractions at practice. Please set all phones to off or vibrate. Phone conversations are strongly discouraged, but if necessary, should be conducted well away from the field.

MISCELLANEOUS

- ▶ Any member of the media who does not have a credential will be asked to obtain one and sign the necessary waiver at the communications office during the regular season and at the practice field during training camp before gaining admittance.
- ▶ All items brought to practice (cameras, bags, tripods, equipment, etc.) should be stored against the wall, away from the field, for safety reasons.
- ▶ Food is not allowed during practice. Bottled drinks are allowed, as long as they are stored in a personal bag against the wall, and consumed near the wall.
- ▶ Any equipment not stored should be held at all times; when avoiding oncoming action, it is important that anything in your possession moves as you move.
- ▶ No players or coaches may be actively engaged in conversation or interviewed while practice is in progress.

INJURY INFORMATION

- ▶ All injury information will be issued by Head Coach Mike McCarthy. Please do not address injury questions to another coach or staff member.

NITSCHKE FIELD BOUNDARIES

- ▶ Media will enter the practice facility along Armed Forces Drive, adjacent to the Hutson Center and toward the northwest corner of Nitschke Field. Media must remain behind the cones on the rubberized track in order to maintain their own safety and the safety of the players.

FAMILY NIGHT CREDENTIALS

- ▶ The deadline to apply for Family Night credentials is 5 p.m. on Tuesday, July 31. Please submit written applications to Sarah Quick via email (quicks@packers.com). Also, please indicate whether the request is for field-photographer access or press-box access. Following Family Night, the team expects to open its locker room to media and make McCarthy available in the Media Auditorium.
- ▶ The Packers will issue separate credentials for Family Night, scheduled for Aug. 4. Non-gameday (practice) passes will be granted for access, but if you do use that pass for access, please notify Sarah Quick that you will be attending the practice. Field photographers will need a specific Family Night credential.
- ▶ Please note the press box will not be open after the practice.

SEASON CREDENTIALS

- ▶ The deadline to apply for 2018 season-long home-game credentials was Friday, June 22.
- ▶ Anyone who missed the deadline should submit a request ASAP for consideration to receive credentials on a game-by-game basis. Requests should be made to Sarah Quick, via email (quicks@packers.com).

PUBLIC RELATIONS INTERNS

- ▶ Season-long communications intern Jack Carney earned degrees from Purdue University in 2012 and Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis in 2016. The Noblesville, Ind., native previously interned in public relations for the Indianapolis Colts in 2016-18.
- ▶ Summer communications intern Kelcee Kent, a Mosinee, Wis., native, is majoring in communication studies and minoring in journalism with an emphasis in public relations at the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh. Prior to joining the Green Bay Packers, she was a public relations intern and weekly columnist of "Kelcee's Korner" for the Green Bay Gamblers of the United States Hockey League (USHL).
